CPD should be relevant to your area of professional practice and have clear learning aims and objectives that meet your requirements.

CPD activities should also have a focus on the clinical aspects of practice, including diagnosis, evidence-based practice and patient safety.

To maintain their competence to practice, all registered osteopaths (except those with non-practising registration) must:

- undertake 25 hours of CPD annually, which includes a mandatory CPD activity approved by the Board, and
- maintain a current first aid certificate at the minimum standard of a Senior First Aid (level 2) certificate or equivalent.

The National Law requires you to declare any such impairments at the time of renewal, including details of the impairment and how it is managed.

PRACTICE

Clinical practice means direct clinical care or oversight of direct clinical care of patients, using the current knowledge, skills and attitudes of the osteopathic profession, whether remunerated or not, and regardless of job title.

Non-clinical practice means any role, whether remunerated or not, in which the individual uses their skills and knowledge as a health practitioner in their profession, except for the provision of direct clinical care. It includes working in a direct non-clinical relationship with clients, working in management, administration, education, research, advisory, regulatory or policy development roles, and any other roles that impact on the safe, effective delivery of services in the profession and/or use of their professional skills.

PROFESSIONAL INDEMNITY INSURANCE (PII)

You must have PII, or some alternative form of indemnity cover that complies with the Board's registration standard, for all aspects of your practice.

Initial registration and annual renewal of registration requires a declaration that you will be covered for all aspects of practice for the whole period of the registration. You may be covered by your Australian employer's PII—you will need to confirm this with your employer.

For more information, view the full registration standard online at www.osteopathyboard.gov.au/Registration-Standards

REGENCY OF PRACTICE

To ensure that you are able to practise competently and safely, you will be required to meet the Board's recency of practice requirements with any application for renewal.

To ensure you are able to practise competently and safely, all practising registrants must undertake at least 450 hours of practice in the previous three years in order to maintain recency of practice in your current domain of practice as an osteopath.

The specific requirements for recency depend on the field of practice, your level of experience and the length of absence from the field. If you propose to change your field of practice, the Board will consider whether your peers would view the change as a normal extension or variation within a field of practice, or a change that would require specific training and demonstration of competence.

Practitioners who are unable to meet the recency of practice requirements will be required to submit a plan for re-entry to practice for the Board's consideration and may be required to undertake an assessment of their competency to practise or complete specific education.

For more information, view the full registration standard online at www.osteopathyboard.gov.au/Registration-Standards
